Elizabeth Bacon Custer's Epic Tale of Romance Lives on 135 Years after Her Husband's Death

Garryowen, MT - The Elizabeth Custer Library and Museum, in cooperation with authors Howard Kazanjian and Chris Enss, is pleased to announce the upcoming release of 92 signed and numbered, leather-bound deluxe editions of the authors' new book None wounded, None Missing, All Dead, in connection with the 135th anniversary of the Battle of the Little Big Horn.

The story of Elizabeth's love and dedication to her famous spouse, and how she handled his betrayal, is the subject of this new book penned by Howard Kazanjian and Chris Enss, which tells the story of the dashing couple's romance, reveals their life of adventure throughout the West during the Indian Wars, and recounts the tragic end of the 7th Cavalry and the aftermath for the wives.

Elizabeth Bacon Custer spent more than 55 years defending her husband's controversial military career and personal life. She championed General George Custer's service with the 7th Cavalry and hailed him as one of the country's greatest soldiers. Although she had proof that he was unfaithful to her, she spoke out against rumors he was promiscuous. Kazanjian and Enss have created an in-depth and personal telling of Elizabeth Custer's public and private life, through her personal ledgers, manuscripts, and letters, many of which are contained in the Elizabeth Custer Library and Museum's holdings.

Said Museum Director Chris Kortlander, "None Wounded, None Missing, All Dead: The Story of Elizabeth Bacon Custer," contains startling disclosures from freshly discovered documents revealing unknown facts about the most famous couple of the nineteenth century. This book is detailed, well documented, and historically valuable, and I am pleased to be a small part of this important literary release."

The ninety-two (Elizabeth Custer lived 92 years) deluxe editions will be signed by Howard Kazanjian, Chris Enss, and Christopher Kortlander, and each will contain an original manuscript or document penned in the hand of Elizabeth Bacon Custer. These deluxe editions can be pre-ordered at the price of $500.00 and will be released on June 25, 2011, the 135th Anniversary of the Battle of the Little Big Horn.
